AU ReactJS Assignment

Ruthvik kottala

The layout of the app contains two buttons and a search bar, when the show all button is clicked all the books present in the store are displayed.

When we search for specific items it will display the specific books in the store,

When we click on the title of the book we are routed to a new page /details which contains the title, author, and review information related to the book.